Dear friends, thank you!

Our home mission ministries continue because supporters like you believe in the vision and value of Catholic mission. We thank God for you daily. Our work would be impossible without you!

Every day, Glenmary Missioners open the door to new opportunities to spread God's love and share the Gospel. We also start each day filled with gratitude for the many partners who answer the call of the Holy Spirit to join us in mission, like you. Did you know that you share in Glenmary's spirituality and mission? Through your continued gifts of prayer and financial support, you walk the journey of faith and service with each Glenmary Missioner.

You make it possible for faith communities to form and grow in areas that had no Catholic presence until Glenmary arrived. You help people with no faith feel God's presence and find a welcoming home. You provide food, medicine, safe housing and other necessities to families who are struggling. You are a source of justice and hope for people who are suffering on the margins. You foster dialogue and work toward unity among our Christian brothers and sisters.

You make a difference and are changing lives!

Just in the last year, St. Peter the Apostle mission in Smith County, Tennessee, dedicated their permanent Church home. At St. John Paul II in Rutledge, Tennessee, 28 individuals from 13 families received the sacraments during Easter Vigil. The total in all Glenmary parishes over Easter weekend was 51 people! Across the missions, children received backpacks filled with school supplies, presents at Christmas, and food for the weekends.

These are just some examples of the impact you make through your generosity and prayers. You'll find more outlined in this Impact and Stewardship Report. We are blessed and grateful to have you with us as a co-missioner.

Thank you for opening the door to new opportunities to build the Kingdom of God!

In Christ,

Father Dan Dorsey
Glenmary President

Chris Phelps
Development Director

Our work is to go into the forgotten and neglected places,

the no-priest land, the no-Catholic land of America. . .to build up little outposts and parishes where now no hope of them exists.”

—*Father William Howard Bishop,
Glenmary Founder*

Our founder's vision

“The true missionary adopts all the people in his area, regardless of creed, for his own. His aim is to make all of them better people and bring them nearer to God.”

—Father William Howard Bishop, Glenmary Founder

Glenmary Home Missioners was founded in 1939 by Father William Howard Bishop, whose vision was for every county in the United States to have a permanent Catholic presence. Thank you for being a part of our charismatic family and sharing our passion for mission!

Five pillars of mission

For Glenmary, a pillar is something firm on which we can stand while we're doing our missionary activity.

Glenmary is committed to establishing a permanent presence for the Catholic Church, but that's more than a church building. We're on mission to establish the fullness of the Catholic faith, which calls us to serve, work alongside and love all of God's children.

NURTURING CATHOLICS

“I’m responsible for the souls of the faithful...you have to walk with them on their spiritual journey, and meet their spiritual needs.”

—Father Neil Pezzulo

EVANGELIZATION

“We come to towns where there are people who have no faith at all...we introduce the Good News to those people who have never heard about Jesus Christ.”

—Father José Carlos Miguel López

ECUMENICAL COOPERATION

“Ecumenism really means Christian unity. How do we respond to Christ’s call that all Christians would be one?”

—Nathan Smith, Glenmary Coworker

CONNECTION TO THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH

“It’s helping Catholics [in the missions] see they are part of a greater Church. And it’s helping the universal Church know more about mission needs in rural America.”

—Father Aaron Wessman

SOCIAL JUSTICE/TRANSFORMATION

“Social injustices in the missions are a lot of time problems with housing and public services. Many people who are poor don’t have access to the programs that will help them out of poverty.”

—Father Vic Subb

Current & past missions

Since 1939, Glenmary has established and helped nurture these mission communities to maturation. At that time, pastoral care was then given to the local diocese, and we move on to new mission territory. With God's help and the generosity of donors like you, Glenmary has established more than 120 Catholic churches throughout rural Appalachia and the South.
